LABOR.

NEW YORK HAS MEAT TO EAT.

Strike of Packers' Teamsters Has Little Effect.

Trucks Are Manned by Men from New England.

Companies Reject Offer to Act as Mediator.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After an all-day session in the Hotel Belmont, the Executive Committee of Seven, representing the New York and western beef packers, gave out a statement tonight notifying drivers that the companies had no further use for their services, and would not treat with them.

Michael J. Regan, of the State Department of Labor appeared before the committee and offered himself as mediator, but he was told that his services would not be accepted.

In spite of the strike, New York got its meat today, although late. No attempt was made to move the whole-sale companies' vans until 10 o'clock, when the workers of the city had gone to their employment, so that there might not be a crowd to collect. Then the big vans began to move out of the packing-houses, each accompanied by a mounted policeman with drawn club. Aside from this, no interference was attempted by the strikers.

The packing and distributing houses manned trucks with non-union men, some of whom were brought from New England.

Representatives of western packers and their refrigerating plants here are unaffected, as their customers sent their own wagons for meat.

Since August 14, when agreement between the companies and the teamsters expired, representatives of both have been endeavoring to adjust the differences, but the teamsters declined to accept a clause providing for the arbitration of all meat questions.

FAIR WARNING.

COMPANIES FOIL UNION'S TRICK.

BROKERS FORBIDDEN TO HANDLE MESSAGES FOR STRIKERS.

Superintendents of Telegraph Lines Informed of Wires That Practice of Transmitting Information for Laborite Officials Must Cease or Contracts Will Be Cancelled.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The announcement was made today by the superintendents of the two big telegraph companies that any further use of the leased wires of the brokerage interests to convey information from one city to another by the officials of the "Telegraphers' Union" would be considered a violation of contract and sufficient cause to cancel the lease of the wire.

This is taken as a declaration of war against the strikers by the telegraph companies and the officials of the union say that they will not embarrass the brokers by attempting to violate the agreement between the companies and the leases of wires.

OPERATORS WHO QUIT BARRED FROM JOBS.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The president of one of the leading insurance companies in New York and the representative of millions of secured business men, the trouble of Wall street as follows:

"I agree with the views expressed by the Boston Broker, August 21. Aside from money, our troubles are growing less and when to put up to high finance. If it had been done early and by well-balanced men instead of by hysterical enthusiasts who seem to think that anyone opposed to their views are conspirators and 'undesirable citizens,' only good would have resulted; but great harm has come with the good to follow because of playing to the galleries and foolish talk by the President, the Attorney-General and some minor officials.

"I think the public is getting tired of it and beginning to see that there is no profit to the people in pushing this thing to the point where the damage is destroyed and credit killed, for that would mean hard times for the employment for thousands of wage-earners.

COURT FINES REBATES.

Former General Freight Agent of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Road Molested.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hiram M. Foss, former general freight agent of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railroad, and the railway corporation, were each ordered to pay a fine of $20,000 by Judge Morris in the United States District Court in Minneapolis today.

This is the second conviction on this charge by both defendants as the Omaha road, co-jointly with its former general freight agent, was convicted in the same court, April 11, of granting rebates to the Spencer Grain Company, on an indictment containing fifty counts.

WORRIED WOMAN.

SEEKS MISSING HUSBY-TO-BE.

DISAPPOINTED FIANCEE HAS FEARS OF FOUL PLAY.

Detroit Woman Asks Police to Investigate Mysterious Disappearance of Wealthy Man of Stockton, Cal., Who Was Engaged to Marry Her. Paid for Her Trousseau.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) DETROIT (Mich.) Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Mary L. Reiter, living with her mother at No. 36 Spruill street, this city, reported to the police today that Otto W. Schoenfeldt, a lawyer and capitalist of Stockton, Cal., to whom she was to be married next month, mysteriously disappeared from her home last week. He was in possession of a big roll of money and bedecked with valuable jewels, and Mrs. Reiter fears he has met with foul play.

Schoenfeldt came here recently from Stockton to prepare for the wedding. Mrs. Reiter told the police she entertained him at her home and he confided towards her trousseau and other expensive connection with the proposed marriage.

That he was earnest in his intentions Mrs. Reiter is quite positive. She has stacks of letters of love to show that he was deeply in love with her, and was not trifling with her affections, she declared. They have been engaged eight years, and in that time, she has been ill a great deal. Since the first of their engagement, they had not seen each other until the present time, and Mrs. Reiter fears that her illness may have marred her looks, and caused Schoenfeldt to be disappointed in her.

Schoenfeldt, a widower, 50 years old, wealthy, intent to settle in Detroit, having advertised in the local papers for a partner to engage in a manufacturing business with him.

Mrs. Reiter's mother thinks he has gone away to avoid marrying her daughter. Mrs. Reiter is a pronounced blonde of 40 years, and until recently, conducted a wholesale liquor business in Chicago. She has already been married three times; her first husband died, the second was a bigamist, and she divorced the third because he drank.

CAUSTIC COMMENT.

FINANCIER IS VERY BITTER.

INSURANCE COMPANY PRESIDENT DISCUSSES SITUATION.

Admits It Was Wise to Put Stop to High Finance, but Declares the Movement Should Have Been Carried Out More Conservatively to Preserve Public Confidence.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The president of one of the leading insurance companies in New York and the representative of millions of secured business men, the trouble of Wall street as follows:

"STATES RIGHTS."

TEXAS DEFIES GOVERNMENT.

CONFLICT OVER QUARANTINE REGULATIONS IMMINENT.

Refusal of Federal Marine Hospital Service to Purchase State Buildings for New Station at Galveston Causes Action by Governor That May End in Serious Complications.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) GALVESTON (Tex.) Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A conflict between the State and Federal quarantine officials is imminent. The United States government today announced that it would erect and maintain a quarantine station at this port as soon as a site has been selected on Bird Isle, in Galveston harbor.

The State of Texas offered to sell its station buildings and equipment, but the Federal Marine Hospital Service officials pronounced the entire outfit worthless, and the State quarantine, as conducted in Texas, a farce.

Gov. Campbell now declares that the State of Texas will continue to enforce its quarantine regulations, and as this is practical defiance of the Federal service, serious complications are looked for in the immediate future.

POLITICAL.

WOODRUFF AS TAFT'S MATE.

Rumors of Deal Made With the President.

New York State Campaign Soon to Start.

Hughes Boom to Be Discredited from Now on.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) OYSTER BAY (N. Y.) Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The mysterious visit of ex-Lieut.-Gov. Timothy L. Woodruff here yesterday has started a race for the Taft ticket in the State of New York. It is to be a candidate for Vice-President on the Taft ticket next year.

According to a State politician who was here a few days ago, Mr. Woodruff is pining for the job and has put the proposition fairly up to the President. The sentiment is to be worked up strenuously and Gov. Hughes discredited as much as possible.

At his last visit to Sagamore Hill, Mr. Woodruff talked over the political situation of New York State with the President and the two are said to have reached the conclusion that from now on the Taft sentiment is to be worked up strenuously and Gov. Hughes discredited as much as possible.

It was Mr. Woodruff who made the proposition that he be allowed to go on the Taft ticket as Vice-Presidential candidate in return for his influence in furthering Taft sentiment in the State.

TOO MUCH WORK.

ROOT'S FRIENDS ARE WORRIED.

PHYSICALLY ON DOWNHILL ROAD FOR THREE MONTHS.

Secretary of State Will Endeavor to Recover in Sanatorium, but If His Health Does Not Improve It Is Thought Possible He Will Retire from Cabinet.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Press dispatches announcing the temporary retirement of Secretary Root to a sanatorium, confirmed the anxiety which his closest friends have felt about his condition for three months past.

The Secretary is tired out, said one of his intimate friends and official confidants this morning, "and his going to the Panama Canal zone was postponed at the urgent request of Mrs. Root, supplemented by the almost peremptory order of the President."

It develops that the real object of the visit of the Secretary and Mrs. Root to Oyster Bay, a fortnight ago, was to enable the Secretary to get a medicine ball at Muldoon's farm. His last appearance in New York was a couple of weeks ago, when the bottom dropped out of the stock market.

He came from his summer home near Ulrica and spent three or four hours in the Wall street district, a fact which inspired the report that he had been commissioned by the President to bring a word of good cheer to the hysterical financiers.

Mr. Root denied that he bore such a commission. The same afternoon he journeyed to Oyster Bay and had a conference with the President. Muldoon immediately jumped to the conclusion that the word of good cheer was really a word of resignation.

Mr. Root, when asked about this, was moodily silent. He went to his home at Southampton. The next heard of was that he was being "made over" at Prof. Muldoon's farm.

counsel with the latter, as he had done for years, the President frequently ignored his suggestions. Mr. Root's friends heard with amazement that the President had completely disregarded the Secretary of State in formulating matters of policy and that the latter contemplated resigning.

HAD WORRIED LOOK.

Some of the Secretary's personal friends expressed concern over his physical condition. Those who sought him reported to the heads of the "interest" that the Secretary had become a negative instead of a positive force in the Cabinet and that the worry and anxiety occasioned by the war was visible in his personal appearance. They said he seemed diffident and disheartened; that he no longer manifested enthusiasm for his work, and was not conspicuous in cooperating with the President in formulating and carrying out the administration's policy.

The public was not informed of the true state of affairs until the announcement of the hostile policy of the administration toward the tobacco trust, in which Mr. Root's friends are most deeply interested.

RUMORS SEEMED CONFIRMED.

This incident was sufficient in the minds of financial leaders to confirm the vague reports of Mr. Root's loss of power as premier and adviser of the President. The most interested in the tobacco trust is Thomas P. Ryan. Mr. Root and Mr. Ryan have enjoyed business and confidential relations for many years. Wall street in fact has always regarded Mr. Root as the chief adviser of Mr. Ryan, and as Root's financial district manifested no apprehension of undue hostility toward the tobacco trust, the financial and corporate interests are closely allied, and the same men are associated in the manipulation of them all. Mr. Root was depended on to prevent damaging disclosure on the part of the administration (the would stifle at every one of them at the same time).

With the government's attack on Standard Oil culminating in the imposition of the twenty-nine-million-dollar fine by Judge Landis and the disavowal of the tobacco trust, the Secretary maintained his characteristic silence, but his personal friends appreciated the steadiness of his attitude.

URGED TO RESIGN.

There is excellent authority for the statement that several powerful men urged him to resign. Some were actuated in this by apprehension for his health. Others wanted him to return to his post as adviser to the President of several big corporations which he abandoned to accept places in the McKinley and Roosevelt cabinets. Now Wall street does not expect him to remain in his present position much longer, on physical as well as other grounds.

In some quarters Mr. Root is credited with having been "caught napping" by Secretary of War Taft and Secretary of the Treasury Colburn, who seem to have supplanted him in the favor of President Roosevelt. Both men have readily assented and approved the vigorous policy of the President in dealing with corporations and are credited with having advised Secretary Root to accept the situation.

There is a great deal of speculation as to what course Mr. Root will take in the event of his resignation. The medicine ball at Muldoon's farm. His last appearance in New York was a couple of weeks ago, when the bottom dropped out of the stock market.

He came from his summer home near Ulrica and spent three or four hours in the Wall street district, a fact which inspired the report that he had been commissioned by the President to bring a word of good cheer to the hysterical financiers.

PRESIDENT VISITS ROOT AT SANATORIUM.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Roosevelt has been a visitor at William Muldoon's farm, near White Plains, several times in the last three weeks. He has come up here in an auto from some point on the Sound, and has been in his yacht. Mr. Roosevelt's visits were for the purpose of visiting Secretary of State Root, who has been at Muldoon's for three weeks. Mr. Root has been steadily improving in physical health since he came here.

Secretary Root was taken to the sanatorium on August 1, by President Roosevelt, who has been visiting him at Sagamore Hill. It is said that the President has been very anxious to see Root, and that he has been very kind to him.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION.

In a room occupied by Mrs. E. G. Wilson at No. 2114 West Fourth street last night a fire started probably from spontaneous combustion. A pile of blazing rags was found in the corner of the room when the firemen arrived. Mrs. Wilson is away from Los Angeles at present. The firemen estimate the damage at about $25.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
OMAHA (Neb.) Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The disappearance of the three registered mail pouches last week remains a mystery apparently no nearer a solution than it was last Friday.

The inspectors and secret service men admit that the pouches are missing, and that they are working hard to find them. Further than this they decline to talk.

AMERICANS FIGHT FRENCHMEN.
Trouble Between Legation Guards at Peking Result in Marines Being Sent to Prison.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—According to stories brought here today by officers of the steamer Persia, twenty-eight marines of the American legation guard at Peking were recently court-martialed and many of them sentenced to the naval prison at Cavite for terms ranging from six months to two years.
The trouble grew out of an encounter between an American marine and a French marine which resulted in the stabbing of the former, who is said to have been the aggressor.
That night, so the stories run, fifty Americans visited a French resort, put to route the Frenchmen assembled there, wrecked the place and set fire to the ruins.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Lower Court Affirmed.

The District Court of Appeals has affirmed the judgment of the lower court of the People against C. P. McPherson, convicted of forgery. Bartlett-Logan Reception.

Japanese Secretary Coming. Among guests will be Mayor Harper, Acting Secretary Gurley of the Chamber of Commerce, and Secretary Zechandlar of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association.

Rare and Curious. The Chamber of Commerce is constantly adding to its collection of rare specimens and exhibits of native fruits and vegetables. Among the recent additions are red Bermuda onions from the ranch of D. K. THEATER TRUST PERFECTS PLAN.

GENERAL COUNSEL WORKS IN SECRET IN EUROPE.

Conferences Are Held With German and English Lawyers, and It Is Expected That American Syndicate Will Make Inroads Upon Foreign Business.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] LONDON, Aug. 22.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] L. T. Mayer of Chicago, general counsel of the American Theatrical Syndicate, who has been in London for some time, though his presence was kept a close secret, left today for Paris.

He is still engaged on the matters that brought him to Europe and the date of his sailing for America is unknown, but he will probably go within the next two or three weeks. It was learned today that Mr. Mayer has devoted his time on the continent and in London to conferences with German and English lawyers in working out the legal preliminaries of at least two important trusts. Extreme reticence marks all persons immediately concerned.

Word comes from Germany that, while Mr. Mayer was there, the legal matters were discussed, if not arranged, with reference to matters connected with some German alcoholic interests. The work was done so quietly it was impossible to learn its exact nature or the length to which negotiations had been carried. These remarks apply to the work he has done here for the American Theatrical Syndicate. However, it can be said that Mayer is the preliminary looking to an extension of the inroads by the theatrical trust upon the foreign fields have progressed favorably, but along what lines remains a matter of surmise.

It is believed, however, that the plan of the syndicate to acquire by purchase of certain of the more important places of amusement in the chief European cities.

The Raton dispatch was communicated to Mrs. Tucker in Washington, where she makes her home, and to her son, Lieut. Logan Tucker.

"REDS" CAUGHT RED-HANDED.

NIP REVOLUTIONISTS IN LOS ANGELES DEN.

Terrific Struggle Attends Capture of Plotters Against Mexican Republic.

*Magon, Villarreal and Rivera, Who Have Been Sought for Three Years by Authorities, Trapped in Pico-street House, Which Has Been Headquarters of

TRACKED from one end of the Western Hemisphere to the other, with the fate and welfare of a great nation hanging on their capture, Ricardo Flores Magon, Antonio Villarreal and Librado Rivera, the leaders of a Mexican revolutionary plot, were captured in Los Angeles yesterday afternoon after a desperate hand-to-hand fight with the officers.

The men are charged with violation of the neutrality law, with inciting rebellion, with criminal libel and with obtaining money under false pretenses. It is claimed that behind those charges lie criminal indictments from Mexico which will send the men across the border. Once there, it may be the story of the wall at sunrise, and the sharpshooters.

For three years the officers have searched for the men. From the jungles of Southern Mexico to the frozen acres of Hudson Bay the plotters were tracked, relentlessly and surely, with an entire nation lending its assistance. Yesterday came the end. Like a bolt from a clear sky Thomas Furlong, manager of the Furlong Secret Service Bureau of St. Louis, with two deputies and Detectives Talamantes and Rico of the local department, swept down on the hotbed of the revolutionists at No. 111 East Pico street, and after a desperate struggle captured the men and lodged them in the City Jail.

Later, Modesto Diaz, editor of the "Revolution," the official organ of the plotters in Los Angeles, was arrested. Today Ambassador Cresel, the chief Mexican representative in the United States, will arrive in Los Angeles. Then the wheels will begin to grind and the revolutionists will be the grist.

THREE YEARS OF PLOTTING.
Three years ago the revolution was organized. Had it been a little out of the government would have cut down the opposition and shot the leaders.
It was not that kind of a revolution. Prof. Librado Rivera of the University of San Luis Potosi, Ricardo Flores Magon of the City of Mexico, a man of education, refinement and gentle manners combined with herculean strength, and Antonio Villarreal, the dashing cavalry officer of the President's guard, decided that Mexico was going the way of the wicked. They decided to reform. They called themselves the spirit of the regeneration. They appealed to the working people to overthrow the government. They were chased from one city to another, from the mountains, the jungles and the sea, and finally over the border into the United States.
Then at St. Louis, undaunted and unconquered, they resumed their work. The "Regeneration," their newspaper, with Ricardo Magon as editor, began its ultimatum. A reformation of the government of Mexico was demanded or the head of President Diaz would pay the penalty. The Mexican officials failed to get their men and the paper lived on. Then for a second time the revolutionists took to the road. They went to Canada, driven by the border, then back again, driven by the representatives of Mexico, they traveled first East, then West, and finally settled in Los Angeles.
Yesterday there was a great revolution; today there is none.

Established lights to guide the mariner through the Santa Barbara Channel. The government has lighthouse sites reserved on Anacapa and San Miguel islands, as well as on Santa Cruz Island, and it is probable that there will also be placed either lights or sound signals on these reservations.
The constant increase of the channel mentioned upon the opening of the Panama Canal, makes the safeguarding of the channel by proper lights and signals one of grave importance.
On Santa Cruz Island the government has a reservation of 100 acres made for lighthouse purposes. Capt. Thomas H. Merry of Santa Barbara has received correspondence from Lieut.-Col. William S. Curry of the United States Engineering Corps, and an engineer secretary of the United States Lighthouse Commission, giving information of the purpose.

Ben E. Ward.

GRIM REAPER CALLS.

ASSESSOR BEN WARD IS CALLED BY DEATH.

Energetic and Lovable County Official Succumbs to Illness Following Completion of Tremendous Task. Dying Blessing for Dear Ones.

BEN E. WARD, County Assessor, died at 11:25 o'clock last night at his home at No. 1041 Beacon street. Mrs. Ward and their two children were with him at the end.

sempor, serving a four-year term. Last year he ran as an independent, with the endorsement of the non-partisan county organization.

Five weeks ago Mr. Ward and his family went to Santa Catalina for the summer. Mr. Ward's affliction, with which he has been troubled for eight years, was aggravated by his relentless campaign for the full assessment of corporations, and he was in sore need of rest. Three weeks ago he returned, accompanied by his family, after a collapse. Although firm in his belief in Christian Science, Mr. Ward sought the advice of a physician. Dr. D. C. Barber gave up all hope of his recovery Thursday. Since that time no physician has been in attendance.

LOVED FOR HIS ENEMIES.
Ben Ward was a man well loved, and well as he loved for the enemies he made. Grudging tribute was given by these enemies themselves, or the most honest of them, to the fairness of his weapons in every fight before the Board of Equalization, even when they had convinced themselves that the assessments which he fought to sustain were not fair.

QUARTER-CENTURY HERE.
Twenty-five years ago Mr. Ward brought his mother, sister and brother, Walter, to California. They settled in Pasadena. Ward went into the real estate business. During the boom of 1885 and 1886 he made considerable money. He was agent for Glendale and opened several other subdivisions.

His strongest weapon was a crystal-clear logic which proved extremely exasperating to gentlemen accomplished in the doubtful art of hiding their points in a cloud of words. He never sought to smother his opponents with bewilderment, never to tangle them in verbiage. He spitted them cleanly with the sharp rapier of his wit. With a single stroke of sarcasm he has torn to tatters the elaborate web of special pleading spun with vast labor by eminent attorneys, leaving their true contention naked and ashamed.

After making nearly $100,000, he lost the greater part of it in speculations. His mother died in Pasadena and later his sister, who married H. H. Barclay, an attorney, also died. Mr. Ward went to Kansas City in 1891 and was married to Miss Jennie Dickinson. Immediately afterward he returned with his wife to Los Angeles. He established a real estate company and was at the head of the firm until he entered politics.

One against many, time and again, he fought before the Board of Equalization; and the many were angry and the one was not. His voice rang with the cadence of scorn, while the army of the opposition winced under the lash, but never once did it break into the explosive chatter of anger which was going on all about him.

For more than eight years Ward was a dominant figure, first as City Assessor, then as County Assessor. During his term in office he made a bitter fight for what he considered just and equitable assessments. His work reached a climax this year when he caused the assessments of the public utility companies about $80,000,000 and was backed by the county Board of Equalization.

AS FIGHTER, NEVER ANGRY.
A fighter who was never angry, he kindled in his antagonists such rage as to make them incoherent many times. He chuckled while they scowled. At times he made them forget his power of logic, the tremendous earnestness which lay beneath his most flippant quips, and they would return to the attack with all the pomposity of their own great importance, only to see their labored contentions fall before some thrust of cold logic at the feeble heart of the imposing figures they reared by their eloquence.

Ward was elected City Assessor on the Republican ticket in 1899. He served a second term in the City Assessor's office. In the county election of 1902 he was elected as Assessor.

He believed in what he fought for, with all the strength of his being. His confidence was absolute, and he fought for his whole belief, conceding nothing.

BABY RAISES SQUALL.

HIDE AND SEEK WITH INFANT FOR A WEEK.

SEVEN days out from under the protecting care of his young mother, little Donald Lloyd Ryerson McDonald, nine weeks old, got back into her arms yesterday morning. Last night he celebrated by lying on his tummy across his grandmother's knee, passively chewing a rubber nipple and calmly studying out the intricate designs of a Turkish rug that lay on the floor.

possession of the babe by habes corpus proceedings. They all were in Judge Bordwell's court late yesterday afternoon, threshing out the facts in the case. Mrs. McDonald, who was Velveteen Dunn, daughter of F. W. Dunn, of No. 121 West Thirtieth street, wants the custody of the child. Her husband is the son of Attorney D. M. McDonald, who appeared in court in behalf of his boy. The pair were married fourteen months ago under romantic circumstances. Both were quite young.

How the infant McDonald enjoyed the week of more or less sleepless nights and days with his father and a milk bottle must ever remain unknown.

GRANDMA DUNN HELPS.
It developed that a good live mother-in-law can engineer affairs admirably for her side of the family in a difficulty such as this. It was through the efforts of Mrs. Dunn that possession of the baby was regained by its mother yesterday morning at the fashionable Hershey Arms on Wilshire boulevard, and Mrs. Dunn has figured largely in the matter ever since the outbreak of hostilities in Oregon.

First the mother started with her mother, the baby and their baggage to come back from Hood River, Or., to dear old Los Angeles. Then McDonald snatched the child, and after the opposing sides had come here on separate trains, Mrs. McDonald gained

PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Councilmen intimated yesterday that they may take a hand in health-office politics by abolishing all positions in dispute.

Owners of office buildings have joined in a memorial to the Council, asking for the repeal of the $1 a room license ordinance.

Street Commissioner Edwards has sent an open letter to all foremen and inspectors in his department warning them to "keep out of ruts."

J. H. Smith, examined yesterday on a charge of forgery, was discharged by Justice Selph because of the inconclusive testimony given by Mrs. Camp, the complaining witness.

In the case of L. R. Garrett against H. L. Martin and others, which involves nearly half a million dollars, the closing argument began yesterday. The case has been on trial for nearly three months.

AT THE CITY HALL.

COUNCIL MAY END SQUABBLE.

DRASTIC REMEDY FOR HEALTH OFFICE POLITICS.

All Positions Under Controversy May Be Abolished and New Ones Created When Feuds Are Dropped. Three Clerks and but a Single Place—Civil Service Affected.

The Council has suddenly evinced a desire to sound a note in health-office politics. The legislators are now terminating the present squabble over the restaurant inspector by abolishing the position altogether; if this is done it will be immaterial to those who pay the taxes whether the civil service vindicates Schwegel or dismisses him.

Councilmen are also displaying an interest in the differences between the civil service board and the health board over the appointment of secretary to the board of health. Three weeks ago the Council created this position, acting on recommendations from the Mayor and the health officer.

At its next meeting the board named H. M. Love, a newspaper reporter, to the position. From the secretary of the civil-service board came a communication to the effect that there are two eligibles for this place, and Love's appointment cannot be confirmed.

The two eligibles referred to are Clerk McGill and Assistant Clerk Self. The health department, Dr. Powers replied that he, McGill nor Self are qualified to perform the special work of the secretary of the health board.

City Auditor Muehle experted the books of the health department while the McGill trial was on. Muehle is quoted as authority for the statement that all the clerical work of the health department can be performed by one clerk and a copyist or office boy; $175 a month is regarded as a pretty high salary for a clerk and an office boy.

Members of the Finance Committee have suggested that the best way to adjust this matter is for the Council to abolish the three clerkships in the health department, and consider what positions it is necessary to create to replace them.

The creation of the place as secretary to the health board is the result of the investigation growing out of the civil-service trial of Clerk McGill.

Additional complications are added to the civil-service case by the resignation without an explanation of Chief Examiner Adams of the civil service board. Adams was appointed by the civil-service board about a year ago. He was formerly employed as civil-service examiner by the United States government.

No objections have been found with the examinations and markings Adams made outside the civil-service department. But about ten days ago the veteran examiner announced that he has had about enough to do with civil service as it is administered here. He dropped a few words that indicated criticism of the manner in which he suddenly ceased talking about the place.

Yesterday a civil-service commissioner admitted that Adams tendered his resignation about a week ago, and that the board declined to accept it. The commissioners are now endeavoring to retain him in his present position.

Secretary Spaulding says that he does not know whether Adams is still serving as examiner. He held the examination on August 15, but he has not occupied his desk in the civil-service department since then. The rumors as to the cause of Adams' retirement, some say that it is the result of harsh criticisms administered by Dr. John B. Haynes, others intimate that he objected to the persistent efforts made to secure high marking for emergency appointees.

There have been occasions when Mr. Adams has presented the result of an examination to the board, and a commissioner has said: "Take this man's papers (indicating a favorite) and go over them again; maybe you can give him enough credits to bring him under the wire."

This is the sort of criticism to which Adams has objected.

city of Los Angeles, but to the county and State, as well, on the various buildings owned by us and threatened by this license ordinance.

"In our opinion this ordinance is also discriminating and invading a natural and inherent right existing independent of State authority to manage and enjoy property. We have at all times been willing to pay just and proper taxes upon our property, but we believe that the imposition of this license tax is an unnecessary burden and one not authorized by law."

FOR HIGHER MORALE.

Seeking to increase the efficiency of the forces under his jurisdiction, Street Commissioner Edwards has sent a copy of the following communication to each foreman and inspector in the street maintenance department:

Your position is such that you have under you a great many men, and material to the value of thousands of dollars, representing a daily expenditure of the city's money of $100,000 per day.

Your value to the city is, therefore, to be measured not by what you yourself do, but by what you get out of the men and material under your control. It is in this view that I trust you will realize how important it is to you to get over your territory and take note of its needs and plan out your work to advantage, and then see that it is carried out. The city is always at your best. Keep out of ruts. New conditions and new territory continually call for new methods for handling work and men.

This note is not a word of complaint, but a reminder of your responsibility.

The men to whom this is addressed have under their direction the expenditure of from $50 to $150 a day. Commissioner Edwards says that he has taken this method to remind them of the trust reposed in them, and to quicken them to a realization that they must work with their heads as well as their hands in the interests of the department.

"I believe that this will assist in the cooperation of all branches under the department," said Commissioner Edwards, "and will work with an eye to the material improvement and the morale of the department heightened."

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

FORGERY CHARGE NOT SUSTAINED.

"LAWYER" AND STENOGRAPHER ARE FREE AGAIN.

Woman Who Accuses J. H. Smith and Miss Lile of Using Her Name Illegally Fails to Make Good Her Claim and Court Promptly Discharges Defendants.

J. H. Smith was discharged from custody yesterday at the close of his examination on a charge of forgery, and the case was dismissed.

The testimony of the complaining witness, Mrs. Eliza J. Camp, developed the fact that she had been led to depend to a great degree, in various transactions, on J. H. Smith and Attorney McKelvey. Her own knowledge of the nature and scope of these transactions seemed to be very hazy.

She could not be sure of what papers she had signed and what she had not, though, in regard to the $750 for which she had held the mortgage on Smith's property, she stated with great positiveness:

"I never received no money."

Attorney McKelvey testified that he had seen Mrs. Camp sign the paper which proved to be a release of the mortgage. Miss Lile, a stenographer in McKelvey's office, and a stenographer who was charged with the writing of the mortgage, gave similar testimony. It was stated that Smith, McKelvey, Miss Lile and Mrs. Camp were the only persons in McKelvey's office when the paper was signed.

Justice Selph stated that it would be useless to put the county to the expense of a trial in this case, and discharged both defendants.

SHE IS HAPPY NOW.

FREE FROM MAN WHO DRINKS.

"I could not very well be happy with a man who was drinking and would not support me," said Mrs. Ruth Willett, yesterday, in answer to a question by Judge Wilbur.

She said she had had no quarrel with her husband, Charles C. Willett, but that he had seemed to find the burden of a wife and a child that he did not support too great. The case has been on trial in Department Three of the Superior Court for nearly three months. Garrett, alleging that he was forced to give up stock in the company by a threat of criminal proceedings for alleged forgery, brought suit for the recovery of the stock (valued at more than $300,000), a note for $10,000, which he claimed he was forced to execute, and $100,000 damages. A decision may follow closely upon the completion of the final argument today.

GARRETT CASE. Attorney J. D. Works yesterday began the final argument in the case of L. R. Garrett against H. L. Martin, the Inglewood Water company and other stockholders in the company. The case has been on trial in Department Three of the Superior Court for nearly three months. Garrett, alleging that he was forced to give up stock in the company by a threat of criminal proceedings for alleged forgery, brought suit for the recovery of the stock (valued at more than $300,000), a note for $10,000, which he claimed he was forced to execute, and $100,000 damages. A decision may follow closely upon the completion of the final argument today.

MALIBU CASE. Arguments on the demurrers to injunction suits filed by counsel for the Rindge estate took up the court's attention yesterday. Four of the Superior Court yesterday. The complaint demurred to is that of Walter Seely, who persisted in crossing the ranch in spite of ick ed gates and special guards.

JURY FOR SHARP. W. S. Sharp, the Needles miner, who was adjudged insane and demanded a jury trial, had another hearing yesterday and persisted in his demand. A jury will be impaneled to try him.

CITY AGAIN ENJOINED. An injunction suit was filed yesterday by the Los Angeles-Pacific Company against the Mayor, City Council and officials of the city of Los Angeles to restrain them from interfering with the running of feeders cars. The plaintiff asks the court to declare illegal and void the ordinance ordering feeders placed on all cars operated on the Pacific Electric Company.

HIDE AND SEEK A WEEK.

on his own resources of late. He went to work as clerk in a grocery store at Hood River at a salary of $12.50 a week.

Things went along all right, according to the story told by Mrs. McDonald last evening, until she took exception to her husband's practice of spending his evenings away from home after he had made the afternoon delivery of butter, eggs and sugar to the Hood River customers.

Aided by her mother, who was with her at the little hotel, she packed her belongings a week ago yesterday and prepared to leave with the baby for Los Angeles. McDonald got wind of her intentions but found himself barred from the hotel. Obtaining a search warrant for a piece of jewelry alleged to be in his wife's apartments, he gained access to the rooms by climbing a tree at the side of the house.

FATHER GETS BABE.

Once in the room, the young father, in sight of his wife and her mother, seized the sleeping babe from his cradle, dashed out of the hotel and was a week.

Though they sought diligently, Mrs. McDonald and her mother said last night that they could get no trace of the child or its father. They said the only legal talent in Hood River had been retained by young McDonald, so they left Saturday for Portland, sixty miles south, on the way to Los Angeles.

En route, it occurred to mother and daughter that they could not possibly find the child in Hood River, where they are unacquainted, so they continued to Los Angeles, where they arrived last Wednesday.

Meanwhile, McDonald was in Hood River with a hungry baby on his hands. Fortunately an abundant supply of the plain clothing to which babies are addicted had been left at the little hotel, and Oregon is a pretty good keep country. It behooved him to have it. Little D. Ryerson McDonald is in the "bottle-baby" class, and all its mother had to do was to bear his motherly burden as best he could.

DADDY'S TROUBLES.

Divining that the remainder of his family had left for Los Angeles, and desiring also to be with his father, McDonald bundled up the baby, laid in a supply of milk, bottles and bibles, and set out on his journey. This odd pair excited the sympathy of impressionable people on the train, who ruminated on the secret of the strange and woe-stricken man.

"We didn't sleep much," said McDonald last night, "when the baby slept, I slept, but I was awake most of the time. It was the only way I could keep the baby from crying. He most to get warm milk, but we got through all right."

"Oh, this is only a childish affair," continued McDonald, "and I hope the differences between himself and wife. 'It will be patched up all right.'"

McDonald wanted to go upon the witness stand, to tell of the trials of her married life, of ill treatment received from her father, of the loss of her world other children who would not be provided for.

LOVES HIM, SHE SAYS.

"I love him," she said of the husband, "I mean, I love him to him. If I knew that it would not mean the same conditions again."

Her counsel argued dispassionately: "If the husband shows any likelihood of giving sufficient support for her and her child, she will return to him. His treatment of her was such that he has driven her away from him."

Counsel for the defense argued that his son would make a model husband. While he was speaking, the mother of the young wife, who had been in Portland caring for her in her sorrow and illness, arose in the courtroom and said she needed care.

The charge was made, in fragments, by the wife and her mother, that the young husband had not provided the necessities of life for his wife, and had neglected her at the time when she most needed care.

McDonald's father argued for an order of the court to compel the weeping wife to return at once to her husband or give up her baby.

Judge Bordwell declined to make any such order.

"That must work itself out between them," he said, "and I would not want to suggest that young McDonald provide a separate domicile for the mother and child, and let the matter of reconciliation settle itself."

"That would be all right if it were for two or three days," said the elder McDonald, "but supposing she should say she was willing or able to support those unborn children, and should still refuse to live with him. It would not be fair to ask him to support her unless she will share his domicile."

Judge Bordwell finally continued the case until this morning at 11 o'clock. He gave the little mother custody of the child for the night.

PLANS FOR BUILDING UP PART OF BIG PENINSULA.

Lower California Development Company Gets Concession from Mexican Government on Condition of Securing One Family for Every Five Thousand Acres.

Extensive development work is planned by the Lower California Development Company for the ensuing year in the large territory held by it in Lower California, through concession from the Mexican government.

These plans include the placing of actual bona-fide settlers on many new tracts of land, and a large increase in the cultivated acreage in lands below Ensenada, which is headquarters for the corporation.

At least 100 families are to be located on these lands within the ensuing three years, and a certain number thereafter annually for the next nine years, in order to carry out the provisions of a new concession made by the Mexican government to the company.

R. W. Lemon, recently appointed as assistant manager for the company, in conjunction with M. C. Heaton, the general manager, has formulated many new plans for development, and the advantage given the company through the new provisions granted by President Diaz is to be used to bring about marked changes in the country adjacent to Southern California, and certain to be closely allied with it by commercial ties.

Mr. Lemon has been for several years the company's engineer, and is thoroughly familiar with the immense holdings in the peninsula. Before the end of the present year he hopes to see many of his plans in actual progress.

The new concession provides for the colonization scheme, and is particularly favored by the Mexican government, which is anxious to see the formation of modern settlements, with the adoption of American methods of agriculture and horticulture.

By the terms of this concession the Lower California Development Company pledges itself to bring into the country, as its first movement, at least 150 new families, and see that they make actual settlements on the land selected.

The concession provides that there shall be one bona-fide settler to every 5000 acres of land, and that he shall carry forward the development of the lands that he secures. This does not mean that there shall be an allotment of 5000 acres to each settler; on the contrary, the colonist may only take up twenty or twenty-five acres, paying for it in small monthly installments; but there shall be that ratio of colonists in comparison with the whole amount of land to be colonized. The colonists must agree to actually occupy the land for a certain length of time, and to place a definite proportion of it under cultivation within a given time. This is a provision made by the Mexican government to prevent the activities of mere land grabbers and speculators.

The plans for extensive development work by the company are to be announced about the close of the present year.

School for Christian Workers.

An eight days' meeting will be held in the new building for the Training School for Christian Workers at Huntington Park, beginning tomorrow and continuing on the following Sunday with the dedication service. Meetings will be held at 10 a. m., 3:30 and 7:30 p. m.

The speakers for the occasion will be Edward Smith, wife, David McDonald, Mrs. G. M. Stanley, Amos Kenworthy, Thomas Armstrong, Henry Kears and others.

a few days.

Department of Agriculture, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday morning and will call in the office of Forest Commissioner John B. Hays
this morning.

will make an inspection of the San Bernardino forest, and will also visit the work of reforestation on the slopes of the mountains, a work that now is being carried on with great vigour. He believes that the best way of preventing the forest fires is by annually sweeping up the forest floor and undergrowth, and by the employment of fire-fighters. He has been built into reforestation, and the forestry has been greatly improved for the better protection of the good of the people.

knowledge of the conditions that exist
as well as in all other respects, gained through years of experience. It is

San Gabriel and the forestry, considering the difficulty that surrounds them, are in the early stages of development.

PURPLE LOTUS MOTHER.
MRS. TINGLEY
IS WELCOMED.

LEADER OF THEOSOPHISTS IN AMERICA REACHES LONDON.

Her Reception at Station Is Very Solemn Affair and Visitor from San Diego Shows Nervousness.
Plans to Found Colony in Hampshire.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
LONDON, Aug. 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The reception of Mrs. Katherine Tingley of San Diego, Cal., head of the theosophists in the United States, when she reached London, was a solemn function.

Long before the arrival of the train
a landau deposited on the station platform Mrs. Tingley's representative.
She wore a blue alpaca dress, with a bouquet of pink roses, and was accompanied by a trio of pale, frock-coated and silk-hatted men, each wearing the symbolical universal brotherhood button.

They bowed low as the "purple lotus mother" stepped out of the coach.
Mrs. Tingley did not impress the bystanders as a prepossessing woman.
Her black eyes shifted nervously as she greeted the faithful.

To a group of reporters she denounced the press men of America for what they call their enterprise.
Mrs. Tingley was accompanied by Nan Herbert, upon whose property in the New Forest, Hampshire, she intends to found a colony similar to that at San Diego.

CIRCULATE THESE Big Facts

The series of three impressive articles, in The Sunday Times, on the developemnt of Los Angeles, have been assembled in a single half-size 8-page sheet and are now ready for widespread distribution.

Eight Captivating Pages.

These facts, shown in the imposing tables and charts, are convincing evidence of the wonderful strides in population, finance and manufacturing industries, made by Los Angeles, the freest city in America. A wide dissemination of this "meaty" literature will forever set at rest the "doubting Thomases" and jealous neighbors who are harping against the "City of the Angels."

Therefore, all the text and tables of demonstration have been printed in a convenient, 8-page sheet, and are now offered to merchants and others (who will mail them abroad) on the following basis:

In 5000 lots, $5 per thousand. Purchasers to have the privilege of having a red line printed on the front page, reading, "Compliments of John Jones," without extra charge. In addition, The Times will insert, if desired, a page advertisement for any purchaser, charging only the cost to the office in addition to the $5 per thousand.

In less than 5000 lots and down to 2500 copies,
$7.50 per thousand, same conditions as 5000 lots.

Less than 2500 and down to 1000 copies, $10 per thousand, same conditions as in 5000 lots.

1000 copies or less, 1c per copy straight, with no extra printing. Send 2c for a single copy.

He has real talent in designing and illustrating and the firm for which he works gives him work along that line, but he wants to get a scholarship in an art school where he can learn to do better work. years old and hopes when she is older to enter the contest herself for a scholarship. Orange county candidates always hit high. Three of them have, in years past, won first prizes in the Times scholarship contests.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED.

Below is a partial list of scholarships which will be offered to contestants. Several other institutions will also be included. The scholarships below represent a valuation of $275.

THE CHINESE GIRL.

Interest in Margaret Chung, the Chinese girl, was given an added impetus yesterday by two more annual subscriptions in her favor from Mrs. Lulu M. Firey, the well-known missionary worker of Pomona. Mrs. Firey had sent a few days before, two annual subscriptions, and writes: "I hope this second installment will not be my last for this worthy contestant."

Mrs. Wm. M. Weller of Orcutt also sent an annual subscription and some coupons for Margaret yesterday. All of these contributions lift her score over 1700 points and she this morning rises to the 22nd row, passing Florence Leonard, Roscoe LeHardy and Mar Moon Gong.

SHE'S REALLY WORKING.
Fannie Wolff has had to stand a good deal of "jollying" for days because little Juanita Carter had passed her and gone so far ahead. Now it happens that they are both working for the very same scholarship, hence the rivalry is particularly strong. Fannie really got busy yesterday and turned in a score of over 3000 points, but she still lacks more than 4500 points of catching Juanita.

Fannie feels very grateful to her friend, Adele Levy, of Ocean Park, a Los Angeles High School male, who has done valiant service in her behalf.

SHE'LL BE WELCOME.

Fern Warner of Orange sends coupons for May Roberts, the Santa Ana girl. Fern writes that she is eleven

TO THE PUBLIC.

Persons wishing to aid any contestant can do so most effectively by filling out the subscription blank at the bottom of this page and sending it to The Times office, together with the cash. Fill in the name of the contestant you desire to so aid and you may be sure he or she will get proper credit for the money.

In order that contestants may acquaint themselves with the scope and nature of the various educational institutions in which scholarships are offered, The Times will print notices from time to time concerning them. This is done that contestants may choose intelligently the particular school they desire. This morning The Times presents some of the advantages of the Y.M.C.A. course of study.

The Y.M.C.A. course of study, in which a scholarship is offered, embraces a wide range of subjects, including business, mathematics, steam and electrical engineering, mining, drafting, surveying, languages, music and many other practical topics. In all, some forty courses are offered to choose from. Last season about 200 men and boys were enrolled in 34 different classes. The plan for this year embraces the establishment of a day school for those desiring college preparatory, commercial and engineering courses. There is a course in drawing and design and in commercial art that is thorough and practical.

Another in applying electricity. Prof. George S. Bouslog, professor of engineering at the University of Southern California, is principal of this department and his classes have access to the university laboratory equipment and are taken on trips of inspection to leading power plants. There is a school of shorthand and typewriting, where the revised Graham system of stenography is taught. There are courses in bookkeeping and penmanship. The faculty includes some of the best educators in the city.

The Cabby's Retort.
Paul Morton, the president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, was talking on La Saviole about the London cabby.

"A hansom or a four-wheeler is supposed to be cheap in London," Mr. Morton said, "but let the average American tourist go driving about in one of them day after day, and at the week's end the size of his expenditure will shock him."

"Of course it is impossible to ride in a London cab and pay only the legal fare of a shilling for two miles. Try cab-riding without liberal tipping, and the cabmen will assail you with the most brilliant and witty sarcasm."

"I know a lawyer who, through ignorance, rode from the British Museum to the Ritz Hotel in Piccadilly, and only gave his driver the shilling required by law."

"The driver looked at this shilling and bit his lip. Then, in the most courteous manner, he motioned to the lawyer to step in again."

"Go on," he said. "Do step in again, sir. I could have drawn you a yard or two further for this 'ere.'"

No Time to Stop.
Jim Johnston, the famous baseball umpire, said recently in New York that baseball crowds were far kinder to umpires than they used to be.

"This is true of theater crowds, too," said Mr. Johnston. "Why, with provincial touring companies in the past, maltreatment was regularly expected. In fact, the companies profited by it in more ways than one."

"I know of a company that was playing 'The Broken Vow' in Paint Rock, a one-night stand. The audience didn't like 'The Broken Vow,' and wags, calabags and potatoes rained upon the stage."

"Still the play went on. The hero raved through his endless speeches, dodging an onion or a baseball every other minute, and pretty soon from those missiles that he hadn't been able to dodge."

"But finally a gallery auditor, in a paroxysm of rage and scorn, hurled a heavy stool, and the actor, thoroughly alarmed, started to retreat."

"Keep on playing, you fool," bellowed the manager from the wings at his hunched in the back with an umbrella. 'Keep on till we get the other one.'"

The Traveled Parrot.
Jacob Hope, the head of Philadelphia's famous phonograph school for parrots, said the other day:

"There are worse things than a swearing parrot, and one was brought over on a German boat last month. His owner, a sailor, swore that this traveled bird knew no profanity, and a lady bought him."

"But she had to bring him to me. The parrot, though he didn't swear, had evidently spent most of his time on shipboard in the ladies' saloon, for what he would do was this:

"For hours at a time he would choke and gasp and blubber as if he'd never stop, and then he'd sing out feebly, 'Steward—buck!'"

Studying Mental Fatigue.
A Washington scientist has recently been conducting a series of experiments on "mental fatigue," and his conclusions throw doubt on the old theory that the mind "loses its power to work as a rubber ball loses its power to bound," and that sleep charges the mind with energy. On the contrary, this investigator finds that the degree of inability caused by mental work is very much less than has been supposed, and he questions whether the results obtained by investigators who have sought to measure mental fatigue in school children were not due to the use of methods which did not measure the inability, but did measure the distaste for mental effort.

Los Angeles County Its Cities and Towns.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

TOWN THAT CLIMBS.

CITY GROWS BY BIG LEAPS.

PASADENA'S PROGRESS TOLD BY AUDITOR'S FIGURES.

Municipality's Credit Has Risen to the Glittering Class and Population Has Increased at Notable Pace. Story of Advance All Along the Line Told in Tense Form.

Office of The Times, No. 24 S. Raymond avenue.

PASADENA, Aug. 24.—Growth and improvement of a city are perhaps nowhere so tersely shown as in the dry figures of an auditor's report. Don D. Kellogg will soon file with the City Council a document of this nature, which will show that Pasadena has recently grown from the small town class, and is now a populous and prosperous city with a credit gilt edged.

For instance, years ago this town used to issue bonds and be glad when they were taken at a discount, with an interest rate of from 5 to 7 per cent. Now Pasadena can issue her debentures and have them accepted, waiting financiers eager to pay a bonus for 4 per cent. bonds. The city has grown, and with its progress her credit has evened month by month.

Not the least assuring feature of the forthcoming report is the record that on February 1 of next year Pasadena will wipe out the last installment of her first issue of bonds. In 1933 this city floated a loan of $1,000,000 at 6 per cent. interest, payable in installments during twenty years. That loan has been met promptly, and on the date above the last bond, $600,000 will be taken up and the city freed of its first burden, which was assumed for the purpose of installing fire protection and sewerage. Two years later, on February 1, 1916, the last of the library bonds, bearing interest at 7 per cent., will be retired.

The total amount of outstanding bonded indebtedness now is $713,213. This includes as its largest item $195,000 of bonds issued for the purchase of an electric plant, of 1906. It is significant that although this city contemplates a bond issue in the near future of at least $400,000, it has no more than $100,000 of bonds outstanding.

Such is the growth of this city, as shown from the Auditor's report.

Although the new issue of bonds looks large for a city of this class, it must be remembered that when the obligation of 1913 was assumed the city assessment was $2,465,627, under $2,000, and now the valuation is $3,453,650, and the population has increased to 22,000. The population has grown sevenfold, and land values have more than trebled in twenty years.

In the forthcoming bond issue will be included funds for the extension of the municipal lighting plant to an amount somewhere between $188,000 and $250,000, $100,000 for more sewers and drainage, $100,000 for schools, and possibly other sums not yet fully decided.

Another feature of the report which is full of significance is the table of population. In 1901 Pasadena drew 10,000 mark. The national census of the year previous gave it 8117 people. Over the year 1901 to 1907, the city has grown again, thus, 12,497, 15,950, 17,380, 21,500, 25,050 and 22,000.

In this summary it would be unfair to omit the building operations for the year ended June 30, 1917, July, 1918, 1919, August, 1919, September, 1919, October, 1919, November, 1919, December, 1919, ELSONORE, Aug. 23.—Word was received here yesterday afternoon that little Walter Piper, the 3-year-old son of William Piper, was lost in the hills north of Elsinore. The boy was reported to be in search of his father, who had been found turned back at 8 o'clock last night fifty or more miles away from the hills. The boy was found by a search party of about 100 men and boys, who were looking for him. The boy was found by a search party of about 100 men and boys, who were looking for him. ELSONORE BRIEFS.

P. C. Graham has just completed drilling a well on the Albers ranch. A fine streak of water-bearing gravel was struck at a depth of about 100 feet. The well was pumped for twelve hours without materially diminishing the flow.

A number of wells have been drilled on this ranch where the water was struck in quick-sand which filled up the well and caused the water to be lost. Consequently the striking of this water in good clean gravel, is particularly gratifying. There will be an enormous saving of water in this ranch this year and the water will be needed for irrigation and at the olive mill.

Mrs. Conoly, wife of Stephen Conoly, died this morning of an abscess on the brain. She had been sick for some time.

Mrs. E. McCoy went to San Diego Thursday to spend two weeks.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. O. Stiles went to Long Beach Thursday morning.

Mrs. O. S. Brown and children left for the East today. They will meet Dr. Brown in Arizona and will visit Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, and their old home in Ohio.

FORTUNE COMES TO HIM.

Oxnard Man Heirs That He Is Heir to Fortune—Thousand-Dollar Estate in Boston.

OXNARD, Aug. 23.—A. J. Cotton has fallen heir to a fortune amounting to $50,000, left him by J. G. Williams, an uncle, residing in Boston, and from whom Cotton had not heard for twenty-five years. The receipt of the news that he had suddenly become a rich man came as a great surprise to Cotton, who had lost all track of his relative, and, in fact, did not know whether or not he was still alive. His surprise did not last long, however, and he took last night's train for Boston to look after the settling of the uncle's estate, which is composed of real estate in Massachusetts and England.

Gabbert of Oxnard have been commissioned by the County Board of Supervisors to go to Sacramento and show cause before the State Board of Equalization why Ventura county should not have her assessment raised. LAND-GRABBING STOPPED.

NATIONAL FORESTRY.

LAND SAVED FOR BENEFIT OF HOMESEKERS.

Method Whereby the Government

Helps Not Only Those Wanting

Homes, But Also Those Wanting to Engage in Any Industries Upon the Land.

Glifford Pinchot, United States

forester, who has been in the national forest for nearly two months looking into complaints against the government's method of administration and seeking suggestions for the improvement of the system wherever possible, has prepared a comprehensive statement with reference to the uses of the national forests, says the correspondent of the Indianapolis News.

"One of the unfortunate things in many of the discussions about national forests," he says, "is that the facts concerning them are sometimes mistaken or misrepresented. This is because their real workings are not understood. For example, a common argument used by those who oppose them is that when a national forest is made all the resources of the region are at once locked up, industry checked, settlement prohibited, and future growth made impossible or very difficult. Since a national forest really does none of these things, but works just the other way, it is well to have a thorough understanding of what the actual effect is.

HOMEMAKERS NOT HINDERED.

Before a national forest is made we have a forest covered area of public lands on which the national forest land laws apply. These open lands may be taken up and patented under the stone and timber act, under all the mineral laws, or they may be taken under the homestead law, if they are suitable for cultivation. Under whatever law it is taken up the land and all its resources are the property of the people for the future. If they are suitable for cultivation, they are carefully excluded from the boundaries. It happens, however, that there are little patches of agricultural land so located within the boundaries that it is impossible to cut them out.

Such lands, are open to settlement.

Congress has provided for the law slightly modified to the national forests. The homemaker can travel through the forests, pick out the agricultural land he desires for a home, apply for it, have it listed, settle on it when listed, enter it, build his home, cultivate his fields, patent it, and the land is his. He can do this in only one way, he must be careful about

it, obey the law and take the land for

a home and not for other purposes.

ENCOURAGING SETTLEMENT.

"A national forest, then, does not in the least shut out settlement. It encourages it. The more settlers the more men on hand to fight fires, the better protection the forest will get and the better and fuller will be the use of all its resources. Prospecting and mining go on just as if there were no national forests there. The prospector is absolutely free to explore and explore just as much as he pleases, and whenever he pleases under the mineral laws, he may strike minerals. He can do this in

only one way, he must be careful about

it, obey the law and take the land for

a home and not for other purposes.
